

Marriage Retreat

There is a sacred circle around every family which should be preserved. No other one has any right in that sacred circle. The husband and wife should be all to each other.

PRESERVING THE SACRED CIRCLE

October 14-17, 2010

"...even for those who have found bitterness and disappointment where they had hoped for companionship and joy, the gospel of Christ offers a solace." MB 65

At this retreat we desire all marriages to enjoy the ultimate unity, peace and fullness of joy which heaven alone can bestow. We seek to provide a long weekend filled with sound Biblical counsel and encouragement for those estranged couples, or those experiencing conflict in their marriage, or those simply desiring to enhance and preserve the sacred circle.

Though all couples are welcome to attend, we do wish to inform attendees that our instruction will be based upon not only the Bible, but also the Spirit of Prophecy as it is expressed in the writings of Ellen G. White.

The grace of Christ, and this alone, can make this institution what God designed it should be—an agent for the blessing and uplifting of humanity... Through the revelation of His grace, hearts that were once indifferent or estranged may be united in bonds that are firmer and more enduring than those of earth—the golden bonds of a love that will bear the test of trial. MB 65

Expense $375 per couple on campus – space is limited
$290 per couple with hotel lodging

Housing Housing is provided on a first come, first served basis, so reserve your housing early. Two meals will be provided each day except for Thursday, when a light supper will be served after registration.

Children Though we understand and highly value the contribution of children to the family circle, we do not have the resources available to accommodate children at the upcoming retreat. Nevertheless, we believe that the wisdom and encouragement obtained by the parents will bear upon the children as well. Please pardon any inconvenience that this may cause.

Dress We would appreciate your adherence to MEET Ministry's Dress Code in keeping with principles of Christian modesty. Please refrain from wearing shorts, T-shirts, form-fitting or see through clothes, jewelry, and low necklines. We also kindly request that women refrain from wearing pants (though a dress or skirt, reaching below the knees, may be worn over pants in cases where such attire is necessary).

What to Bring Bible, umbrella, walking shoes, bath linens (if staying on campus), light supper items if desired (e.g. fruit, crackers, etc.)

Pre-registration non-refundable fee of $50.00 Deadline September 27, 2010
Late registration fee will apply.
